

Panel Discussion & Private View

Monday 6 October 4–8pm

John Hansard Gallery

SHOW ME THE MONEY

THE IMAGE OF FINANCE, 1700 TO THE PRESENT

John Hansard Gallery / Admission FREE

Panel Discussion: Shadow Money

4–6pm / FREE / Booking Essential

To celebrate the opening of Show Me the Money: The Image of Finance 1700 to the Present at the John Hansard Gallery, join us for a free discussion event exploring culture, money and the economy, chaired by Show Me the Money co-curator Nicky Marsh (University of Southampton). Confirmed panellists include artists Mathew Cornford, David Cross, Jane Lawson and Justine Smith, and curators Paul Crosthwaite (University of Edinburgh) and Simon Wolfe (University of Southampton). To book tickets visit shadowmoney.eventbrite.co.uk

Private View

6–8pm / FREE / All welcome / no need to book

After the event, please join us for the exhibition Private View, where refreshments will be served.

Show Me the Money is on show until 22 November 2014 concurrently across two venues – John Hansard Gallery and Chawton House Library. For venue details visit:

www.hansardgallery.org.uk | www.chawtonhouse.org

To find out more about the project visit:

imageoffinance.com

Cover image: Immo Klink, Financial District, 2000-2014. Courtesy the artist

John Hansard Gallery

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

Brought to you by Sunderland
City Council

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

UNIVERSITY OF Southampton

